ANNOUNCEMENTS

Breakfast will be served by Scouts on the lanai after all Sunday Masses.

Our parish is committed to the development of young people as future community leaders, and good citizens of upstanding moral character. We congratulate the latest class of scouts for achieving the highest rank of Eagle by completing a significant project of lasting and community benefit. Eagle Scouts embody qualities of trustworthiness, loyalty, helpfulness, friendliness, courteousness, kindness, obedience, cheerfulness, thriftiness, bravery, cleanliness, and reverence. Scouting is part of the outreach mission of the parish and their members will serve breakfast after all Masses in thanksgiving for our commitment to their programs. Pictured above: Maya Payne, Troop 311's first female Eagle Scout, and Aidan Campbell and Cole Wolcott, at their Court of Honor held at the Bowfin Pacific Fleet Submarine Force Museum at Pearl Harbor.

Congratulations to Sofia Garcia who earned the top Stars and Stripes Award of American Heritage Girls with the completion of her video project telling the story of women religious here in Hawaii. Read the cover story in the Hawaii Catholic Herald.

Our Second Collection today will be for Catholic Charities in Hawaii.

Serving Hawai'i since 1947, Catholic Charities Hawai'i serves all people, especially those with the greatest need, regardless of their faith or culture. As part of the largest private network of social service organizations in the United States, Catholic Charities Hawai'i offers much needed programs and services statewide, serving 40,000 individuals each year. Please prayerfully consider being generous in your support.

The Hawaii Catholic Men Conference —“Prepare My Hands for Battle”

The 2022 Hawaii Catholic Men's Conference is being held at St. Ann Catholic Church on Saturday, August 27, 2022. Hawaii's own Dallas Carter will be the MC for this conference as nationally renowned Jesse Romero will present four inspirational talks. All men in our parish community are encouraged to attend this inspirational conference as Romero is renowned for his ability to edify and motivate men with his spoken messages. This is a great opportunity to reawaken and deepen the faith of the men in our parish. For more information and to register, please visit our event page at the following link:

St. Vincent de Paul Society—Submitted by Melody Sasaki

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us to “strive to enter through the narrow gate.” Our call to be disciples and to follow Jesus demands that we learn to live for the sake of others. Through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul assists neighbors in need by providing for food, utility, rent and other requests. Your generosity goes a long way.

SCHOOL NEWS

Submitted by Earl Walker

St. John Vianney School held a Parent Night on Wednesday, August 10th, for the first time in three years. To help minimize the number of people in each classroom only one parent of each student was asked to attend. The purpose of the event was to have a parent visit their child's classroom and meet their teacher. The goal was to familiarize each parent with what the expectations for the students will be during the 2022-2023 school year. Students in the 5th grade held the event on Wednesday, August 17th.

For our teachers, it was a wonderful evening to actually meet the parent of their students in person. It was also a joy for our students to have their parent meet their teacher in person. Since facemasks are optional this year, many students were able to view the faces of their classmates for the very first time. It was indeed a most enjoyable and worthwhile evening for us all.

Faith Action Pioneers Reunite

On the weekend of August 6-7, Fr. Tom Gross returned from his retirement home in Las Vegas to help kick off the 60th Anniversary Celebration of St. John Vianney Catholic Church in Kailua. Father Tom was pastor at SJV from 1996 to 2015 and was key to getting the parish involved with Faith Action for Community Equity (FACE).

Celebrating his return were three familiar faces from Faith Action: Jessica Fernandez White, Christy MacPherson and Patrick Zukemura. Jessica was the first Executive Director of FACE, hired in 1995. Christy was one of the earliest community organizers and became Executive Director in 2017. Patrick must be the longest-serving staff member of FACE, serving as an organizer from its beginnings until his retirement in 2021.

CATHOLIC FAITH CORNER

A Year of the Holy Spirit (The Gift of Piety)

Piety also makes us love and have affection for “God’s friends” — the Blessed Mother Mary, the saints and the angels; or “God’s representatives” who exercise His authority — the Holy Father, the bishop, or parents; or “God’s treasures” — the Bible, the church, or blessed religious objects. Concerning piety toward God’s treasures, as a child, I was taught to kiss the Bible and the crucifix, to bow my head at the name of Jesus, to be quiet and respectful in God’s house, and to avoid walking on blessed graves — all acts of piety.

As such, the Gift of Piety perfects the virtue of justice, enabling the individual to fulfill his obligations to God and neighbor, and to do so willingly and joyfully. With piety, the person is not only motivated by the requirements of strict justice but also by the loving relationship he shares with his neighbor. Simply, a person wants to do what is right in the eyes of God. A person thereby should have a respectful obedience to lawful superiors, as well as a humble respect for peers and subordinates. For example, St. Teresa of Kolkata always taught her sisters to treat those they cared for, as though they were caring for Jesus Himself, and to do so with a joyful heart and with a smile.

Saturday, August 27 (after Mass)

Enjoy an Inspirational Movie in the parish center Board Room. Based on historical events, three young shepherds in Fátima, Portugal, report visions of the Virgin Mary, inspiring believers and angering officials of the Church and the government, who try to force them to recant their story.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE STATE OF HAWAII
WITNESS TO JESUS

Dear Friends,

Peace be with you!

Consider this: you see brown-skinned family living in a van, and you guess that they might be Micronesian, but you don't really know. To be honest, you don't really care. If anything, you're annoyed that they are there.

An elderly man ends up in the hospital with kidney failure. A nurse calls you to say that he is asking for you. He has no family. He has no one. Could you visit? Well, you say, he's not really a friend, more like an acquaintance. True, you used to work together, but that was a long time ago. Besides, you have your own health issues to consider.

You convinced a woman to keep her child and you are proud of that, but then when she approaches you, in obvious need, carrying her newborn, you pretend you don't see her. You've got enough on your plate.

The Gospel for this Catholic Charities Sunday, the Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time, relates a scenario similar to these, with a terrifying turn. The one not recognized is you.

"Then will you stand outside knocking and saying, 'Lord, open the door for us.' He will say to you in reply, 'I do not know where you are from. ... Depart from me' ... For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

Catholic Charities Hawaii does not look the other way. It does not pretend it doesn't know you. It does not shut the door.

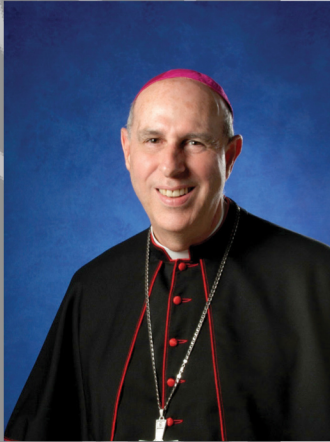

Rooted in the Gospel, Catholic Charities Hawaii exists to lovingly serve all people, the poor, the stranger, the elderly, the last and the least, regardless of their past.

Catholic Charities invites all people of good will to share in its mission.

It is inviting you. Please accept the invitation.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Larry Silva
Bishop of Honolulu
