ANNOUNCEMENTS

Eucharistic Procession from the Co-Cathedral to the Cathedral Basilica, June 2

Join the Mass for the Feast of Corpus Christi with Msgr. Gary Secor on Sunday, June 2nd at the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa at 10:30 a.m. The Mass will be followed by a Eucharistic Procession to the Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace in downtown Honolulu and finish with adoration and benediction celebrated by Msgr. Secor. Please bring your own water and sun protection for the approximate 1.5 mile march. For more information, please call the Office of Worship at (808) 585-3342.

Blessing of Graduates at all Masses this weekend

All 2024 graduates from middle school, high school, college, and university are invited to come forward at the appointed time for a blessing during Mass and a special gift from the parish.

Jesus Thirsts Movie—Playing in theaters, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 4 and 5

The Miracle of the Eucharist takes viewers on a global journey to uncover the transformative power of the Eucharist. Through discussions with Catholic leaders and heartfelt personal narratives, the film unveils the Eucharist as Jesus Christ himself, eagerly desiring to fulfill our spiritual thirst with his boundless love. Playing locally in theatres on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 4 and 5 at Consolidated Ward and Mililani Theatres and Regal Dole Cannery and Kapolei Commons. Visit www.jesusthirstsfilm.com.

Rosary Relay for the Sanctification of Priests on Friday, June 7

Join the Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace Parish in reciting the Sorrowful Mysteries on Friday, June 7 at 11:30 a.m. for the sanctification of all priests. We especially pray for Bishop Larry Silva and the priests in the diocese for continued strength, good health, and thanksgiving for all they do. The event will be live-streamed through these links:

<https://honolulu cathedral.org/live-stream/>

<https://www.facebook.com/HonoluluCathedralBasilica>

You may also pray the rosary at your time convenience for the same intention that day.

Thanksgiving Masses at SJV by the new diocesan priests on June 8 and 9

The newly ordained priests, Fr. Kurt Kealii Meyer and Fr. Francis Hai Thanh Pham will celebrate Thanksgiving Masses at St. John Vianney Parish on the weekend of June 8 and 9, 2024, with hospitality refreshments on the Fellowship Lanai after every Mass in honor of the newest members of the Diocese of Honolulu's Presbyterate. Let's congratulate them!

Additional monthly evening Adoration service on Wednesday, June 19

The parish will begin offering once-a-month evening adoration beginning this month on Wednesday, June 19th at 7 p.m. in the church. Join other parishioners after the Holy Hour for dessert on the Fellowship Lanai. See the flyer at the church entrance for details.

A beautiful graduation ceremony was held in the church on Friday, May 24th. Each graduate presented their parents with a special gift thanking them for their love and support. All were guided on their path to success and were prepared for the finest high schools. We wish them all the best as they begin their high school journey.

Your parish school has a tradition of promoting excellence in academics, encouraging spiritual growth, and assisting in the formation of students in mind, heart and spirit. We do this through a challenging curriculum, in a nurturing environment and with the support of their parents.

Next school year will begin on Wednesday, July 24, 2024. Our programs focus not only on math, science and technology, but also encourage students to live their faith through service to others. Information about our curriculum, tuition assistance programs and an application to enroll your child or grandchild are available at www.sjvkailua.org.

CLERGY RETREAT

CATHOLIC FAITH CORNER

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

The Sacrifice of Adoration

Not too long ago, Pope Francis encouraged a recovery of this form of prayer stating, “we need to regain the sense of adoring in silence. It is a prayer we have lost; few people know what this is.” To run with the Holy Father’s prompt, what exactly is this practice and why do we do it? Adoration is an opportunity to rest with the Lord in the midst of a busy, chaotic time.

Eucharistic adoration only makes sense on the basis of a recognition that the Eucharist is substantially God-with-us, that is, the body, blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ made present under the appearance of bread and wine. Once we get into our heads that the Eucharist is Jesus, then we can begin to hear the words of Jesus echo in a Eucharistic context: “Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest” (Matt 11:28). All of us live busy and, at times, fragmented lives. Eucharistic adoration can be an oasis in the midst of this busyness that reminds us that we are not defined by what we do, how busy, successful, or unsuccessful we are; what defines us is the love of the Father. Sometimes one does not need a particular set of prayers to say, although at times these are helpful. It is simply a time to rest with the Lord.

To be honest, adoration is sacrifice. Anything worth doing requires sacrifice. Many are the times when it is difficult to get to adoration. Not only are the opportunities somewhat limited, but one finds out that whenever we make up our minds to pray, suddenly nine or ten things come up which we either really need to do or would be more enjoyable at the moment than praying. It has been characteristic of every religion, ever throughout the history of the whole world, to offer sacrifices as part of their religion. What is unique about Christianity is that instead of sacrificing something else (or worse, someone else), Christianity is a religion of self-sacrifice. Not only does Jesus offer himself to the Father on the cross, but we also, in following Jesus, must “deny ourselves” in order to be his disciples (cf., Matt 10:37).

GLORY TO GOD

RM 27.4

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. | We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, | Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, | Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, | you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; | you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; | you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. | For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, | with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Psalm 116²

Robert M. Mondoy

I will raise the cup of free-dom as I call on God's name! I will raise the cup of free-dom as I call on God's name!

1. What gift can ever repay God's gift to me? I raise up the cup of freedom as I call on God's name!
2. Precious in the Lord's eyes is the death of his beloved. I beg you, Lord, now hear me, your servant; you set me free from the grip of death.
3. I bring a gift of thanks as I call upon your name. My vows to you, Lord, I pay in the presence of all God's people.

COMMUNION PROCESSION

Take and Eat

Take and eat; take and eat: this is my body given up for you.

Take and drink; take and drink: this is my blood given up for you.

1. I am the Word that spoke and light was made; I am the seed that died to be reborn; I am the bread that comes from heav'n above; I am the vine that fills your cup with joy.
2. I am the way that leads the exile home; I am the truth that sets the captive free. I am the life that raises up the dead; I am your peace, true peace my gift to you.
3. I am the Lamb that takes away your sin; I am the gate that guards you night and day; You are my flock: you know the shepherd's voice; You are my own: your ransom is my blood.
4. I am the cornerstone that God has laid; A chosen stone and precious in his eyes; You are God's dwelling place, on me you rest; Like living stones, a temple for God's praise.
5. I am the light that came into the world; I am the light that darkness cannot hide; I am the morning star that never sets; Lift up your face, in you my light will shine.
6. I am the first and last, the Living One; I am the Lord who died that you might live; I am the bridegroom, this my wedding song; You are my bride, come to the marriage feast.

REFLECTION Give Us This Day

Hymnal 378

1. Give us this day our daily bread, You said You would supply all my needs, according to your riches. I have but to ask, and I shall receive.

2. To go from here and share this love you've given me, to show the one who's lost and help them find the way, the way to truth and love, so they can be free--

Oh God, we need your love, Oh God, we need your peace, Oh God, we need your joy so we can be free! Give us this day our daily bread.

The 2nd Year of Eucharistic Revival
The Year of Parish Revival

Attend an Evening Adoration to Experience Jesus in the Eucharist

Our parish will host an evening adoration on the third Wednesday of each month from 7:00 to 8:00 pm beginning in June 2024.

All are invited to this unique opportunity to be with the Lord in a personal, prayerful way.

“We should consider those moments spent before the Blessed Sacrament as the happiest of our lives.”

St. John Vianney

The Year of Parish Revival

Attend an Evening Adoration to Experience Jesus in the Eucharist

- An evening adoration is a time where we get to come together as a church family and encounter the presence of God!
- We will have evening adorations on the third Wednesday of each month from 7:00-8:00pm beginning in June.
- Our goal is to increase Eucharistic devotion and connection to the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.
- Come foster community, deepen your spiritual formation, and experience the presence of the Lord in the Eucharist.
- An evening with Jesus in the Eucharist will draw us deeper into our relationship with Him, motivating us to learn more about our faith, and to share the gift of the Eucharist with others.
- An evening adoration is also a good time to express our praise and thanksgiving to God for His abundant blessings.
- It is a special way to be with the Lord in a personal, prayerful way. Jesus always desires to touch our lives where we have a need for His grace.
- Whatever our hunger or desire is, we bring that to Lord and open ourselves to His loving presence.
- Come receive the grace to deepen your friendship with the Lord during an evening adoration.
- Please extend an invitation to family and friends and ask them to join you for this special time with the Lord.
- We will conclude with a special blessing given to us by our Eucharistic Lord.
- Afterwards we will share a dessert and fellowship on the Lanai.

Our Parish Faith Formation Committee encourages

DEACON FORMATION

ABOUT US

The Permanent Deacon Formation Program is a five-year intensive program that prepares men spiritually, intellectually, and pastorally for Ordination. Men (and if married, their wives) will be formed and sent to teach, to guard and to bear witness to, and to serve the Church through their witness to Jesus, and their diaconal ministries of Word, Service and Charity.

INQUIRY WEEKENDS

These weekend retreats offer a spiritually enriching encounter, filled with valuable information, providing men and their wives a profound experience to deeply explore the diaconate vocation. Whether you've felt a diaconal calling or have just a faint inkling of one, you should attend. To be considered for the next cohort, applicants must attend one of these mandatory weekends, with their spouses if married.
