Dear Parish Family,

One sentence that we hear repeated so often in the Eastertide is, "Peace be with you." Every time Jesus appears to his apostles he greets them, "Shalom aleichem!" 'Peace' is a word which is featured a lot in the Christian vocabulary. We use it often, especially during the Eucharistic celebration and in dismissing the congregation. The priest or deacon says, "Go in the peace of Christ". 'Peace' is also featured a lot in the vocabulary of most world religions and in secular conversations. It would be interesting in the Eastertide to pay attention to this. As is the case with many of the words and phrases that we are most familiar with, it is quite possible for us to go on uttering this word, 'peace', without ever pausing to reflect on what it actually means! Of course, the dictionary definition of peace is simple enough: "quiet; tranquility; mental calm; serenity; freedom from disturbance ..." – but how exactly does this apply in the context of our faith in the Risen Christ?

"Peace be with you" is both an invitation to the apostles to be calm and allow fear to be driven out, and a challenge to live that peace! As Christians, our very presence in the world is to bring shalom to our neighborhood – our homes, our places of work, our schools, in the streets, and to the world! During the Eucharistic celebration when the priest invites us to "offer each other the sign of peace," it is symbolic of our call to share that peace with others. It might be easy to shake hands with the one who happens to be next to me during Mass, but as I do that, am I willing to share my peace with that person out there, whom I find so difficult to love?

Let this season of Easter be a sign and movement of peace and Christ's presence, from our hearts, as we witness to others.

In the Risen Christ,
Fr. Peter

Apologetics Without Apology Year of Reading the Bible

Acts 3:12-19; 1 John 3:1-7;
Luke 24:36b-48

Prophecies about the Messiah had been made by many prophets. (Isaiah 49:6; Isaiah 53) Jesus came and fulfilled every single one of them. Then came a moment of proclamation or announcing of all this to others.

The First Reading this Sunday shows that as the apostles began the work of preaching and proclaiming Christ, they proclaimed a message that was rather basic, simple and to the point. It was that: Jesus is the Messiah, was crucified and rose again. Peter's proclamation does just that. After healing a man unable to walk, Peter preaches to the people, describing how God's promises to Israel had been fulfilled in Jesus. This proclamation requires a response from us; that we should repent of our sins, accept baptism and live in the new life which Christ is offering, and so be prepared for the coming judgment.

In the Gospel, Jesus both shares the disciples' food (Eucharist) and shows them the meaning of his suffering, death, and resurrection through the scriptures, the two main elements of our Sunday worship. He also opens the minds of the disciples to understand him as the risen Messiah. He then sends them on a mission to be proclaimers of the good news.

Reflections:

- 1. How do you think Peter, in spite of being an uneducated fisherman, got such a gift to proclaim the Gospel?*
- 2. If we believe that we as Catholics have the ability to proclaim the Gospel with the Spirit given to us, what keeps us from sharing it with others? How can you overcome some of these obstacles?*

Third Sunday of Easter

April 18, 2021

<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/041821.cfm>

Reading I

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people:

"The God of Abraham,
the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob,
the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate's presence
when he had decided to release him.

You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you.

The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses.

Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did;
but God has thus brought to fulfillment
what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer.
Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away."

Gospel

Lk 24:35-48

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this,
he stood in their midst and said to them,
"Peace be with you."

But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost.

Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled?

And why do questions arise in your hearts?

Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself.

Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have."

And as he said this,
he showed them his hands and his feet.

While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed,
he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?"

They gave him a piece of baked fish;
he took it and ate it in front of them.

Reading II

1 Jn 2:1-5a

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin.

But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father,
Jesus Christ the righteous one.

He is expiation for our sins,
and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world.

The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments.

Those who say, "I know him," but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them.

But whoever keeps his word,
the love of God is truly perfected in him.

He said to them,

"These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled."

Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.

And he said to them,

"Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name
to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.
You are witnesses of these things."

DISCERN THE VOCATION OF DEACON

Deacon Andres (Bambi) Emayo, ordained January 2018 from Kauai, Bishop Larry Silva. His lovely wife is Clarissa Emayo. Deacon Jerry Tokars and his wife Esther Tokars (picture above) were their mentors during their Deacon Formation years.

OVERVIEW

The ministry of the Permanent Diaconate is new, yet in another sense, ancient; it traces its roots to the time of the Apostles.

The Diaconate flourished as an official ministry in the Early Church but, in time it became a step toward priesthood and, thus, became a transitional office. The Second Vatican Council restored the Permanent Diaconate as a unique way to serve the people of God in a threefold ministry of word, sacrament and charity.

The Deacon is empowered by his bishop to administer infant Baptism, witness Marriages, officiate at wakes, funerals and burial services, administer sacramentals, preside at prayer services, distribute Holy Communion, proclaim the Gospel and deliver the homily.

The Deacon's ministry of charity calls him to areas of need in which he demonstrates particular expertise or talent. These areas may include hospital/hospice chaplaincy, prison ministry or other works designed to assist the poor and marginalized members of society.

Cohort 11 Deacon Formation Inquiry Weekends will be held in 2021

Attendance at one of the Inquiry Weekends is mandatory for all those contemplating the submission of an application.
