Dear Parish Family,

During these Sundays of Ordinary Time, we are reading from Mark's gospel. Mark brings the reader through a process by which the real identity of Jesus is gradually revealed. This Sunday he shows Jesus' decision to move with his disciples across the sea: "Let us go across...." The crossing itself is difficult, as is the challenge that confronted them on the other side of the lake. As they made their way across the lake, a storm suddenly blew up. Naturally, the disciples were very afraid and thought their boat was going to sink. Through it all, Jesus was fast asleep in the boat. In a panic, they woke him up: "Master, do you not care?"

As we read this passage, we are reminded that life is a journey from one side to another. The confrontation of a life-threatening storm is also a reminder that along the journey of life there are many challenges, fears and anxieties. But, as in the first reading where God commands the sea and all of its moods, so does Jesus show his divine power to calm the storm by rebuking it.

There is no individual life or society that does not experience fear or anxiety. Maybe we see some threats looming on our horizon, or perhaps it may be the current pandemic. We badly need the peace of Jesus. Very often we either have no control or little control over the political and social developments of our society; and we have little or no control over what other people are doing. But no matter what we are experiencing, we can, with the help of Jesus, find peace. It is the peace which only he can give. And it is a peace that no one can take away from us.

HAPPY FATHERS DAY: We pray for all fathers in our parish that through the intercessions of St. Joseph they may be blessed. Happy Fathers' Day!

In Christ,

Fr. Peter

Apologetics without apology A Year of Reading the Bible

Job 38:1, 8-11; 2 Corinthians 5:14-17;
Mark 4:35-41

There is a mention of the sea in the Book of Job. The sea in the Old Testament is a symbol of upheaval and chaos. As we read the Book of Job, he finds himself in a stormy situation. The ultimate question in this chaos is: Why does God allow the good to suffer? The answer is, because He is God. In Chapter 37, Job's friends try to convince him that his difficulties were caused by his sins. But in these short verses, God shows that He is in control and He speaks "out of the storm." Since God is in control, Job was required to keep calm and carry on, because God is the beginning and the end of the storms of life.

In the Second Reading, St. Paul encourages the Corinthians, and us, to be calm as we live the Gospel because God is in control. The control comes from the realization that God loves the world so much that He gave His only Son to come and calm the storms of life.

In the Gospel, by crossing the sea in a storm and commanding its waves to be quiet, Jesus showed the power of the Creator (v. 39). Jesus did not pray for calm seas, but commanded, or rebuked the stormy sea, to be calm. In calming the sea, He answered the question, "who is this that even the winds obey (v. 41)?" He is God and has all authority in heaven and on earth. This was a dramatic demonstration of the proclamation in Mark 1:15 that the time of fulfillment and the Kingdom of God has arrived. In times of turmoil, let us always remember who is in control.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

On whom do you rely during difficult times?

How do you react in times of any loss; for instance, of a loved one?

SCHOOL NEWS

St. John Vianney School, 940 Keolu Drive, Kailua, HI 96734 * 808 261-4651

The students and staff at St. John Vianney want to wish all the fathers in our parish a happy Father's Day. Lord, we ask you to bless all the men who are serving as our fathers and let them know we love and appreciate them every day.

Classes for next school year will begin on Monday, July 26, 2021. Our goal is to provide students with on-going formation in their faith and to prepare them for success in higher education. Our curriculum focuses not only on math, science and technology, but also encourages students to live their faith through service to others. This is the Catholic School difference. Our hope is that we develop not only the future leaders of Hawaii but also those in our Church.

We are still accepting applications for the next school year. To learn about our curriculum, scholarships and financial assistance programs, see our website sjvkailua.org or call the school office at 261-4651.

Monstrance—A symbol of the Blessed Sacrament since the monstrance is the sacred vessel which contains the consecrated Host when exposed or carried in procession. It is a well-known emblem of St. Clare, who is reported to have repulsed unbelievers who assaulted her convent of nuns by presenting to their gaze Christ in the monstrance. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is every first Saturday after the 8am Mass.

Twelfth Sunday In Ordinary Time

June 20, 2021

<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/062021.cfm>

Reading I

Jb 38:1, 8-11

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said:

Who shut within doors the sea,
when it burst forth from the womb;
when I made the clouds its garment
and thick darkness its swaddling bands?

When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door,
and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther,
and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

Reading II

2 Cor 5:14-17

Brothers and sisters:

The love of Christ impels us,
once we have come to the conviction that one died for all;
therefore, all have died.

He indeed died for all,
so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh;
even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh,
yet now we know him so no longer.

So whoever is in Christ is a new creation:

the old things have passed away;
behold, new things have come.

Gospel

Mk 4:35-41

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples:

"Let us cross to the other side."

Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was.

And other boats were with him.

A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat,
so that it was already filling up.

Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion.

They woke him and said to him,

"Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?"

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!"

The wind ceased and there was great calm.

Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified?"

Do you not yet have faith?"

They were filled with great awe and said to one another,

"Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

He took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.

A Father's Day Tribute

Happy Father's Day to fathers, grandfathers, and stepfathers! Five weeks ago, we offered Mass for our Moms. On this third Sunday in June, as we do each year, we observe Father's Day offering our dads, living or dead, and invoking our Heavenly Father to impart his blessing on them. The origins of this national event is not clear. Whatever the case, the impulse to honor fathers is a worthy one and it comes with the biblical admonition. We have in the Bible, many examples of men who were true to their calling to be fathers. Let us take a look at two scenarios.

Joseph of Galilee is an exemplary father in the Bible who acted both as a protector and defender. He married Mary, despite the unusual circumstances of her pregnancy. He dared to be unconventional because he trusted that God was working through her and himself. He was a righteous man who dared to take on the roles of husband and foster father. And as refugees from danger, after the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem, it is clear that he protected his family by going beyond what was familiar, to find a safe haven. We can learn much about fatherhood from Joseph. Another father from the Bible that is impressive is the one who had two sons, one of whom went astray. This is, of course, the story told by Jesus of the prodigal son. The father in the parable teaches his two sons powerful lessons of love: the one who went astray who discovered that his father's care came to him even when he had run away from it, and the other who struggled to understand such extravagant love in the face of his brother's failures and his own fidelity. The father in the story, like God, never gave up on either of his children.

On this Fathers' Day, there is one dad, however, who doesn't always get a lot of honor. That is the "World's Greatest Dad," Our heavenly Father (Rom. 8:15, Gal. 4:6). Many of us pray the "Our Father" day after day, without paying attention to, or experiencing, the love and providence of our Heavenly Father. May all earthly fathers draw strength from their Heavenly Father on this Father's Day and become role models.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

P.S. Good to know updates regarding tax law and charitable giving for 2021:

Charitable Contributions for Non-Itemizers – The Taxpayer Certainty and Disaster Tax Relief Act allows those who don't itemize their deductions a deduction of up to $300 for cash contributions made during 2021. Married couples filing jointly are allowed a deduction of up to $600 for the cash contributions they make during 2021.

This is an increase from 2020, when the contribution was limited to $300 regardless of filing status.

Cash Contributions for Itemizers – Under the CARES Act that was enacted in March 2020, the 60% deduction limit on cash contributions to most charities was suspended for 2020, thus allowing larger cash contributions during the COVID crisis—potentially up to 100% of the AGI. Under the Taxpayer Certainty and Disaster Tax Relief Act of 2020, the suspension of the 60% limit has been extended to 2021.
