From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parish Family,

This Sunday's Gospel shows us a contrast between the way of the world and the way of Jesus. The world seeks greatness and praises the great, but Jesus praises the little ones. Some people define their significance in life by how many people know their name. Some people think that to be great you have to be better than everyone else. We see James and John approach Jesus and ask: "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." (Mark 10:37) Jesus told them that they did not know what they were asking. They were thinking in terms of this world; they wanted what this world considers great. In other words, they were saying to him: "Give us the two top places of honor in your kingdom." But what Jesus considers great is something entirely different: "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all." (Mark 10:43-44) The thinking of James and John had been contaminated, we might say, by the thinking of the time. God's view of the world and what is truly great is something they would eventually learn from Jesus. The world says "love yourself", but Jesus says "love others."

Just like James and John, our thinking too could be contaminated by the false thinking of the world. We could erroneously hold up as great only what is great in the eyes of the world. Social media and television have different measuring sticks for what is considered greatness. Jesus says, "the one who is truly great in the eyes of God is the one who is servant, and the one who is first is slave to all." Genuine servanthood is love in action; the kind of love that sent Jesus from heaven to a manger, and from a manger to a cross. That is true Godly servanthood. It is what being a follower of Jesus is all about. God uses the meek and lowly. "Are you the kind of servant God can use?"

Know your Catholic Faith Corner

Apologetics Without Apology Year of Reading the Bible

Isaiah 53:10-11; Hebrews 4:14-16;
Mark 10:35-45

Scriptural Background: This Sunday's Gospel reading finds Jesus still resolutely making his way toward Jerusalem, his destiny. For the third time now in Mark's gospel, he predicts his upcoming Passion to his disciples (Mark 10:32-34. See also Mark 8:31 and 9:30-32). The apostles James and John (along with Peter) formed what can be called Jesus' "inner circle." They appear with him at key moments where the other apostles are not invited, for instance, at the raising of the daughter of Jairus (Mark 5:21-24, 35-43), the Transfiguration (Mark 9:2-8), and in the Garden of Gethsemane during his prayer of agony (Mark 14:32-42). It was not long before this Sunday's episode, however, that he rebuked them as they argued over which of them was the greatest (verses 9:33-37). And now, with Jesus' latest prediction of his Passion still in their ears, James and John (verse 35) and then the other disciples (verse 41) again display a preoccupation with worldly ambition. They still misunderstand the Kingdom. Jesus takes the opportunity to contrast their concept of power-leadership in the world with that of servant-leader in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Questions for Reflection:

- In the Gospel, what view of the Kingdom are James and John still clinging to? How do you think they could respond in light of Jesus' words in verses 33—34?
- Who in your experience has been a true servant leader? Are you a servant leader at work or home? How? Do you resist following the servant's path to greatness? What one way could you serve this week?

Twenty-Ninth Sunday In Ordinary Time October 17, 2021

<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/101721.cfm>

Reading I

Is 53:10-11

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity.

If he gives his life as an offering for sin,
he shall see his descendants in a long life,
and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.

Because of his affliction
he shall see the light in fullness
of days;

through his suffering, my servant shall justify many,
and their guilt he shall bear.

Reading II

Heb 4:14-16

Brothers and sisters:

Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens,
Jesus, the Son of God,
let us hold fast to our confession.

For we do not have a high priest
who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses,
but one who has similarly been tested in every way,
yet without sin.

So let us confidently approach the throne of grace
to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

Gospel

Mk 10:35-45 or 10:42-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him,
"Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you."

He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?"

They answered him, "Grant that in your glory
we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."

Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking.

Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?"

They said to him, "We can."

Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized;
but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared."

When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John.

Jesus summoned them and said to them,

"You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them,

and their great ones make their authority over them felt.

But it shall not be so among you.

Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant;
whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all.

For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

CELEBRATE HALLOWEEN THE CATHOLIC WAY

OCTOBER

ALL HALLOWS EVE ALSO KNOWN AS "HALLOWEEN"

We call October 31 "All Hallows Eve," also known as "Halloween," because it refers to the evening before All Hallows Day, or All Saints Day, which is on November 1.

How we can celebrate:

Dress up like little saints or everyday heroes who are serving the needs of the community. A popular alternative to a Halloween celebration is an All Saints Party.

ALL HALLOWS MASS OR ALL SAINTS DAY

November 1 is a special day when the Church celebrates with all the people who have died and are now with God in heaven. Any person who enters into the Glory of Heaven is considered to be a saint. We do not know the names of all the saints. The Feast of All Saints is a day to remember the example of all holy men and women who strove in their earthly life to serve the Lord and those in need.

How we can celebrate:

Go to Mass and honor all the saints and loved ones who are in heaven. Read the life story of a saint and ask for their intercessory prayers.

ALL SOULS DAY

November 2 is a special day called the Feast of All Souls when we remember those baptized Christians who are believed to be in purgatory because they died with the guilt of lesser sins on their souls. The prayers of the faithful on earth will help cleanse these souls in order to fit them for the vision of God in heaven.

How we can celebrate:

Dedicate this day to prayer and remembrance. Pray at home or visit the graves of the faithful departed and offer a rosary prayer for their soul. Honor your loved one by lighting a candle in the church and pray for them.
