St. Vincent de Paul—Submitted by: Melodie Sasaki

In today’s Gospel we see how Jesus, on his way to Jerusalem, sent “messenger on ahead of Him.” To be the messengers of God, we must know well what it is God wants to say and do through us, as he sends us out to bring his love to others. When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and mercy into our hearts and into the hearts of those suffering in poverty. Is there any family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at 808-456-7837 so that together we can help those who are in need.

SCHOOL NEWS

Submitted by Earl Walker

The value of a Catholic education is more than what your child can learn through books – it’s in their personal development. We focus on educating the whole child, mind, body, and most importantly spirit.

Children in St. John Vianney School benefit from a learning experience that develops all of the physical, emotional, social and spiritual qualities integral to human health and happiness.

We challenge our students to improve the world by sharing Gospel values and living Christ’s message of salvation. We help them understand that God is present and active in their lives and in the world. Students also learn to experience God’s grace and presence in their lives through their relationships with their family, friends and teachers.

Each student receives an exceptional education through a challenging curriculum focusing on math, science and technology. This is accomplished in a nurturing environment with the support from their parents. To enroll your child in your remarkable parish school, please call 808-261-4651.

CATHOLIC FAITH CORNER

A Year of the Holy Spirit The Gift of Fortitude

We’ve been looking at the Gift of Fortitude in this month of June. This gift strengthens our will to choose what is right and good, especially when it becomes difficult. It is with the help of the Holy Spirit that we are given the firm intention to achieve the ultimate good, which is heaven.

We saw during this time that Fortitude is, in a way, the easiest gift to understand. In our struggles, sometimes love demands more of us than we are able to give. God does not abandon us at those times. He gives us his strength. Fortitude is the strength to get through.

It’s really impossible to think about Catholic morals without the gift of fortitude. God does demand the impossible of us. The Church doesn’t teach that the moral life is easy. And please never forget this: the authentic teaching of the Catholic Church does not teach that you just have to try harder on your own. Catholic moral teaching (which we might call the doctrine of the difficult parts of the active life, the parts governed by Counsel and Fortitude) is about what the Holy Spirit can accomplish in us. We are not meant to do it on our own, because at the heart of Catholicism is the belief that we don’t have to do it on our own. God helps. He gives us the strength to do what we cannot do ourselves. It is the Holy Spirit who makes us heroes.

In Scripture, the greatest example of fortitude is seen in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Whether facing physical deprivation and temptation (Mt 4:1-11), strong and powerful criticism (Mt 12:1-8) or betrayal and death on the cross (Mk 14), Jesus resisted temptation, endured criticism and forged ahead to the cross despite terrible pain. Jesus was sustained by the gift of fortitude; God-given endurance to see the journey through to its glorious end.
